50 years after the Marcinelle mining disaster

Remark: From now on, in the OSC, there are no more mentions of printing processes other than "Rasterdiepdruk-héliogravure-heliography", assuming that the other various sources correctly mention "Rasterdiepdruk-héliogravure-heliography".

In "Philanews" and OSC they sometimes talk about "heliorasterdiepdruk" in Dutch but in French "héliogravure" (e.g. for: 3970/79-3981/82-3991-4103....?), which is the same as "rasterdiepdruk=héliogravure (FR)". Probably the misprint in OSC was simply copied from the various "Philanews". □
